ROSEMARY FOR REMEMBRANCE

"Rosemary, that's for Remembrance" will not belie its meaning with those who witnessed the performance last night. The story is a beautiful one. Sir Jasper shaking off the dust and mildew that lingered in retirement were beginning to bring, at the sight of Dolly, battling with his honor, and his final remembrance, all make a tender romance.

Rosemary is a delightful play, acted in delightful fashion. Julia Dean is winsome, natural and girlishly sweet and tender throughout, investing Dolly with a world of romance and charm.

Mr. Neill's Sir Jasper recalls somewhat the Bachelor's Romance, his quiet methods admirably suiting the role. MacVicar as the snuffy Johnsonian type of a bookworm clinging to the past by wig and small clothes, the better genius of the friend whose hospitality he takes advantage of, was an excellent characterization. John Burton's lovable old sea dog who fought with Nelson, blustering, tender hearted father with his "Finish it Hannah, finish it" will long be remembered in Honolulu. George Bloomquest deserves much congratulation for his rendition of the fiery youngster, eclipsed by the man of the world into making an ass of himself, but lovable for all that and showing the promise of a worthy manhood. Rosemary deserves much longer mention than space permits tonight. To-night "Rebellious Susan" should fill the house.

ALLAN DUNN.

Heavy Tax Collections.

Yesterday was a busy day for the tax office employees. The amount of cash collected was so large that no accurate footing was obtained yesterday afternoon. Collector Pratt stated yesterday that the tax office would be kept open until midnight tonight, and as much longer as people were waiting to pay their taxes. After today a penalty of ten per cent is added. The collections this week have been about equally divided between the general property and income tax. In many cases a written protest was filed with the payment of the latter tax.

The proceeds of this unique enterprise are to be donated to a piano fund.

PUTNAM'S HEALTH PILLS

A Boon to People Living in Tropical Countries.

No white people are natives of tropical countries. Many physicians claim the tropics unsuitable for the white race. Why? Because the climate is enervating. You get run down, the liver becomes sluggish, the blood is impoverished, boils and pimples break out, you are nervous and irritable, and a general feeling of being "out of sorts."

Putnam's Health Pills are made especially for this class of ailment. They wake up a sluggish liver; they make rich red blood; they remove that languid feeling, and tone up the whole system. There isn't the least question of their being the best tonic pill in the world. If they don't benefit you, your money back. Therefore, with such a guarantee, why delay the treatment? Get them today and receive the benefit they will afford at once.
